

Mustangs Rally to Top Attica Gridders Gallop to Victory

After a crowd-pleasing rally which produced a 22-10 victory over Attica at home last week, Dansville High's football team will go on the road for a Saturday game in Rochester.

Coach Mike McMullin's Mustangs will play at Jefferson High with kickoff set for 1 p.m. Jefferson, which has faced an interrupted city league schedule thus far, came out a 21-6 winner over Monroe last week.

Dansville found itself coming back twice in the non-league battle against Attica but two fourth quarter touchdowns, both by Chad West who sat out the second and third quarters with a sprained ankle, nailed down the decision.

Attica scored in the second quarter when Eric Campagna fired a 30-yard pass to Shawn Shanahan to climax a 66-yard drive. Brian Boucher booted the point for a 7-0 lead. Dansville answered a few minutes later. Quarterback Dave Hamsher raced the final 30 yards in an 80-yard march and then passed to Brad West for two-points and a slim halftime lead. It was a ball-control drive using 13 plays.

The defenses battled back and forth during a scoreless third quarter but early in the fourth, Boucher split the uprights with a 27-yard field goal to give Attica a 10-7 lead.

That set the stage for West's return and the fullback responded, despite a lame ankle. In the final quarter he carried 11 times for 92 yards and found the endzone on runs of five and 11 yards to cap the drives. During the first which put the Mustangs back in front, a 16-yard pass from Hamsher to Brad West was a key play, giving the locals a first down deep in Attica territory. After the final touchdown, Hamsher went over on a keeper for the two-point conversion.

While the offense bounced back, the defense contained the Attica attack, especially on the ground where the visitors gained only 27 yards. Campagna hit on nine of 24 passes for 87 yards, most of it coming in the first half.

A rushing game which produced 235 yards helped the Mustangs dominate play although several scoring attempts were thwarted. Dansville picked up 42 yards in the air on five Hamsher aerials—four to Brad West and one to Jim Fox—and the winners ground out 15 first downs to eight for Attica.

Chad West finished with 123 yards and Hamsher picked up 68. Brad West ran for 29 yards and Mike Green 27. Penalties helped check Dansville drives as the Mustangs were called six times for 60 yards. Attica was called four times for 30 yards.

Fox led the defensive unit with six solo tackles and four assists but had plenty of help from Jim King with five and three, Corey Davis with three and four and Green with three and four. Brad West had three solos and six assists, Jerry Mitchell three solos while Pat Byrnes was two and three, Ken Helman two and four and Hamsher two and one. Hamsher picked off an Attica pass while Davis and Green had quarterback sacks.

Dansville's junior varsity played at Attica Thursday night and came home with a 12-8 victory. Scott Chizuk and Rod Rowan scored the touchdowns.

The Dansville JV's will host Avon tonight at Ralph Clements Field with kickoff at 6 p.m. Jefferson does not have a junior varsity and this will be the second meeting of the Dansville and Avon team which battled to a scoreless tie earlier in the season.

ON THE MOVE — A strong rushing game carried Dansville High to a 22-10 victory over Attica here last week. In top photo, halfback Brad West turns the corner and breaks up field for a long gain. Below, quarterback Dave Hamsher does the same on an end-around keeper. The Mustangs rushed for 235 yards compared to only 27 for the visitors.
